Poetry Competition Award

1st Place Nicolette McDermott- Ketchum, Volunteer Facilitator and the Hummingbird Memory Café Participants wrote the poem Autumn Begins collaboratively.

Awarded $200.00 Target Gift Card

In addition to serving as the Volunteer Facilitator for The Hummingbird Memory Café, Nicolette McDermott-Ketchum is also a steering committee member of Reimagining Dementia: A Creative Coalition for Justice. She worked as a family medicine/primary care physician assistant with the Indian Health Service both in Kayenta, AZ and Shiprock, NM for a total of 17 years. Prior to her medical work, she was a pre-K to 8th grade teacher in Missouri and on the Navajo Nation. She enjoys opportunities where she is able to infuse creativity into her work while bridging her teaching background and medical experiences.

Below is a song developed by Café participants. Enjoy.
